according to custom in the Soppinbetta assigned to that village, no interference for demarcation is necessary. But where there may be disagreement and complaint, investigation of customary rights should be held and raiyatwar allotments made.

Subject No. 173.
Sagar-Doddenkoppa road required.

Summary of discussion.—The cart track from Doddenkoppa to Sagar viâ Hartal, Hebbail and Bhimanakone may be converted into a made road.

Dewan's reply.—To Deputy Commissioner for disposal.

Subject No. 174.
Musafarkhana, &c., for Kallurkatte.

Summary of discussion.—A Musafarkhana with a well may be constructed at Kallurkatte for the convenience of travellers.

Dewan's reply.—This has been already sanctioned.

Subject No. 175.
Police patrol of ghat roads.

Summary of discussion.—The number of Policemen now deputed to patrol ghat roads is insufficient for the work. The strength of such guards should be increased.

Dewan's reply.—To Deputy Commissioner for disposal.

Subject No. 176.
Superior Holders' Rent Recovery Rules.

Summary of discussion.—Powers may be given as in the Madras Presidency, to superior holders to recover rent, by adopting coercive measures, from their recusant tenants.

Dewan's reply.—The Mysore Land Revenue Code provides for this with certain limitations as to time. See Section 97.

Subject No. 177.
Revision of Registration fees.

Summary of discussion.—Registration fees levied in this Province are higher than in the Madras Presidency. An additional fee is also levied on documents containing more than 300 words. The latter fee may be dispensed with.

Dewan's reply.—No revision of existing rates is called for at present.

Subject No. 178.
Special Stamp paper for Hundis.

Summary of discussion.—Special stamp paper should be introduced as in the Madras Presidency, for Hundis—(Bills of Exchange). At present, ordinary paper is used with one anna labels or people have to use the large sheets of stamp paper which are heavy and entail high postage. Moreover, Stamp papers purchased by one person whose name is endorsed behind it, may not be used by another, and if sold to another, the latter's name may not be endorsed in continuation of the endorsement of the first purchaser's name. All this is inconvenient.

Dewan's reply.—There is no great inconvenience in the present arrangement. The rule is that no one but a licensed vendor shall sell Stamps to the public and perhaps it is objectionable to endorse fact of a second sale on